COMPLIANCE OFFICER

1. The Company Secretary of the Company shall be the Compliance Officer for the purpose of the Code. In the absence of Company Secretary, such person as may be authorised by the Chairperson / Co-Chairperson of the Company shall discharge the duties of the Compliance Officer under the Code.

2. Based on self – declaration, if any, given by Designated Persons, the Compliance Officer shall provide a report to the Board and in particular to the Chairman of the Audit Committee on an annual basis providing details of the trading in Securities of the Company by Designated Persons and violation(s) of the Code, if any.

COMMUNICATING OR PROCURING OF UPSI

1. No Designated Person and Insider shall:
 - Communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI, relating to the Company or its Securities to any person including other Insiders;
 - Procure from or cause the communication by an Insider of UPSI, relating to the Company or its Securities. Provided that nothing contained above shall be applicable when an UPSI is communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured:
 - in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations; or
 - in the event the Board of Directors is of the informed opinion that sharing of UPSI is in the best interests of the Company.

Any person or entity in receipt of UPSI pursuant to a legitimate purpose shall be considered as Insider under the Regulations and the Code.

The concerned Designated Person or Insider shall before sharing UPSI intimate such person or entity to maintain confidentiality of such UPSI in compliance with the Regulations.

The concerned Designated Person or Insider shall maintain the digital database with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database. Such digital database shall contain the names of such person or entity as the case maybe with whom UPSI is shared along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorised by law where Permanent Account Number is not available of such person or entity.

2. The Company shall adopt a “Chinese Wall” approach (i.e. barrier within an organisation to prevent exchanges or communication of UPSI that would lead to conflicts of interest) separating a group of employees who reasonably are expected to have in their possession UPSI. Such employees shall not communicate any UPSI to any other employee. In exceptional circumstances, any such employee may “cross the wall” and give confidential information only on the basis of need to know basis provided he intimates the same to the person heading his Department prior to crossing the wall.
3. All information shall be handled by the Insiders on a need-to-know basis and no UPSI shall be communicated to any person except as mentioned hereinabove.

PROHIBITION TO TRADE WHEN IN POSSESSION OF UPSI

1. No Insider shall directly or indirectly trade in Securities of the Company when in possession of UPSI.

When a person who has traded in Securities of the Company has been in possession of UPSI, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

2. Provided that the Insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances which may include the following:

- transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between Insiders(s) who are in possession of the same UPSI, other than a UPSI obtained in the best interests of the Company, without being in breach of this Code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Such off-market trades shall be reported by the Insiders to the Company within 2 (two) working days. The Company shall notify particulars of such trades to the Stock Exchanges on which the Securities of the Company are listed within 2 (two) trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

- the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of UPSI, other than a UPSI obtained in the best interests of the Company and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;
- the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.
- the transaction was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.
- in the case of non - individual Insiders:
 - (a) the individuals who were in possession of such UPSI were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such UPSI when they took the decision to trade; and
 - (b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that the Regulations are not violated and no UPSI was communicated by the individuals possessing the UPSI to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;
- trade was undertaken pursuant to a Trading Plan set up in accordance with this Code and the Regulations.

3. In the case of Connected Persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of UPSI, shall be on such connected persons.

TRADING WINDOW

1. Designated Persons and their relatives shall not trade in Securities of the Company during closure of the "Trading Window", i.e. the period during which trading in Securities of the Company is prohibited.
2. The trading window shall generally be closed for all Designated Persons between the first day subsequent to the end of a quarter for which financial results are required to be announced by the Company till 48 hours after disclosure of such financial results.
3. In addition to the above, Trading window may be closed by the Company during such times in addition to the above period as it may deem fit from time to time including when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Persons or a class of Designated Persons can be reasonably expected to possess UPSI till 48 hours after the UPSI is made public.

4. The Trading Window shall open 48 (forty eight) hours after the UPSI is made generally available.
5. The communication related to closure and opening of the Trading Window shall be deemed to have been sent to all the Designated Person and Connected Persons and their relatives once intimation of it has been sent to the Stock Exchanges where Securities of the Company are listed and uploaded on the website of the Company.
6. Additionally, the communication related to closure of the Trading Window may also be sent by the Compliance Officer to Designated Persons as maybe applicable (templates attached as Exhibit 1).
7. Ignorance of the closure of the Trading Window or non- receipt of communication of closure of Trading Window shall not justify any trades undertaken by the Designated Persons or their relatives during such closure of Trading Window.

PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADE

1. Designated Persons and their relatives may trade in the Securities of the Company when the trading window is open. But it shall require pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer in respect of trading in Securities of the Company, where the value of the Securities proposed to be traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transaction over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs. 10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs). Trading in Securities above the said threshold by the Compliance Officer shall require pre-clearance from the Chairperson/Co-Chairperson of the Company. Trades executed as per an approved trading plan shall not require pre-clearance.
2. An application for pre-clearance of trades shall be made (Exhibit 2) by the Designated Persons along with an undertaking / declaration in (Exhibit 3).
3. No Designated Person shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such Designated Person is in possession of UPSI even if the Trading Window is not closed.
4. The approval (Exhibit 4) shall be granted by the Company within 5 (five) trading days from the application being received complete in all respect. If the pre-clearance is not granted within the specified period, the request shall be deemed to have been rejected. There shall be no obligation to give reasons for withholding of approval.
5. Trades for which pre-clearance has been obtained, shall be executed within 7 (seven) trading days from the date of the approval of pre-clearance or such shorter period as may be specified in the pre-clearance approval, failing which a fresh pre-clearance shall be required to be obtained by the Designated Person.
6. Designated Persons shall file the details of the transactions in (Exhibit 5) with the Compliance Officer within 2 (two) trading days of the exercise of the trade. Even in cases where the transaction has not been undertaken, the same should be reported in the above format.
7. Designated Person and their relatives who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade during next 6 (six) months following prior trade.
8. In case the contra trade is necessitated by personal emergency, on application made by the concerned Designated Person to the Compliance Officer or the Chairperson/Co-Chairperson as the case may be. The Compliance Officer or the Chairperson/Co-Chairperson as the case may be, may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the Regulations. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act. Provided that this shall not apply for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

TRADING PLAN

1. An Insider who may be perpetually in possession of UPSI shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan to enable him to trade in Securities of the Company in future in a compliant manner and present it to the Compliance Officer pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
2. Insiders desiring to formulate a trading plan may do so in accordance with the provisions of the Regulations and the terms and Conditions as set out below:
 - a) Trading Plan shall not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - b) Trading Plan shall not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - c) Trading Plan shall entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - d) Trading Plan shall not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - e) Trading Plan shall set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade i.e. acquisition or disposal and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected;
 - f) Trading Plan shall not entail trading in securities for market abuse;
 - g) Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the Securities outside the scope of the Trading Plan;
 - h) Trading Plan should not have any potential for violation of the Regulations and the Code. The Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan;
 - i) Implementation of the Trading Plan shall not be commenced if any UPSI in possession of the Insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. In such event the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such UPSI becomes generally available.
3. The Insider submitting such Trading Plan should also provide along with such Plan a self-declaration that such Trading Plan does not have any potential for violation of the Regulations and that Implementation of such Trading Plan shall not be commenced if any UPSI in possession of the Insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. Basis, such self-declaration, the Compliance Officer shall review and approve the Trading Plan if it complies with the Regulations and the Code.

The Compliance Officer shall disclose the Trading Plan to the Stock Exchange(s) where the Securities of the Company are listed. The Trading Plan, if any of the Compliance Officer shall be reviewed and approved by the Chairperson/Co-Chairperson of the Company. Pre-clearance of trade shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved Trading Plan.

4. Trading Window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved Trading Plan.

INSTITUTIONAL MECHANISM FOR PREVENTION OF INSIDER TRADING AND INTERNAL CONTROLS

The Chairperson/Co-Chairperson of the Company shall put in place adequate and effective system of internal controls to ensure compliance with the requirements given in the Regulations to prevent insider trading. The internal controls shall include the following:
